

CDM Network & PCP Workshop

Wednesday June 4th, 2003

Agenda

9:00am – 9:30am	Registration
9.30am – 11.05am Session 1 General Practice & other service providers working together in chronic disease management	Presenter: Gawaine Powell-Davies, Centre for GP Integration Studies, UNSW “What does the evidence say about how to improve working relationships between general practice & other primary health services” Snapshots: Rima Truchanas, Central Vic Health Alliance, Diabetes Care Plan Clinics Marnie Graco, Hume Moreland PCP, One Step Ahead Program Ailsa Gregory, South East PCP, Diabetes IDM Jill Kelly, Whitehorse Division of General Practice, Good Life Club Fishbowl Panel Discussion: Exploring key success factors in general practice & other service providers working together in chronic disease management
Surprise Segment	Optional participation
11.15am-11.45am	Morning Tea
11.45am - 1.15pm Session 2 Divisions & PCPs supporting better chronic disease management – Working together with existing resources	Overview & Progress Reports: Statewide picture of Service Coordination & Integrated Health Promotion initiatives through PCPs Statewide picture of Victorian Division chronic disease management programs & general practice uptake of commonwealth incentives Small group work – Building a systematic approach to quality chronic disease management through effective partnerships • How can diabetes & asthma incentives in general practice contribute to PCP objectives? • How can implementation of service coordination & integrated health promotion assist general practice to take up diabetes & asthma incentives?
1.15pm-2.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm – 4.00pm Concurrent Sessions	1. Information sharing and networking opportunity for divisions supporting local Aboriginal communities to provide medical services. (Honour Room) 2. The promotion of physical activity in primary care (Victory Room) 3. What assists GPs to refer people with chronic illnesses to self management programs (Ballroom 1)
4.00pm	Close