

Agenda

Explaining Divisions: An introduction to Divisions of General Practice for Community and Consumer Representatives Friday 24 October 2003

9.45am	REGISTRATIONS
10.00am	Introductions About General Practice Patient and division perspectives. Are they the same or different?
10.30am	About Divisions The background to their development, their relationship with General Practice, with communities, and with government.
11.15am	MORNING TEA
11.30am	More about divisions. What are some of the common programs divisions are involved in? How are these of interest to both General Practitioners and community members?
12.30pm	Common roles for community and consumer representatives in Victorian Divisions.
12.55pm	Consumer voices in context. How divisions may relate to organised community and consumer health advisory groups at the local and regional levels.
1.00pm	Your questions answered
1.15pm	Closing discussion and workshop evaluation.
1.30pm – 2.00pm	LUNCH